Gold September Campaign

WHO Global Initiative for Childhood Cancer in Tokyo 2021
“WHO GICC in Tokyo 2021”

Venue: Conference Hall, National Cancer Center Japan, Tokyo
Date: 14:00~16:00, September 25th, 2021

Live viewing; From the homepage of NGO-MOCC (https://mocc4u.org/)

General Moderator: Mami Koga (NGO CancerNetJapan)
Opening Remark: Teijiro Furukawa
(Chairman, Imperial Gift Foundation Boshi-Aiiku-Kai)
Keynote Speech: Akira Nakagawara
(Chairman, Asian Pediatric Hematology and Oncology Group; APHOG)

Opening Remarks:
- Hanako Jimi (Member of the House of Representatives, Japan)
- Tokuaki Shobayashi (Ministry of Health, Labor and Welfare, Japan)
- Tetsuo Noda (Chairman, UICC-Japan)
- Soichi Adachi (Chairman, Japan Children’s Cancer Group; JCCG)
- Andre Ilbai (World Health Organization; WHO)
- Kathy Pritchard-Jones (President, International Society of Paediatric Oncology; SIOP)
- Rashmi Dalvi (Continental President of Asia, SIOP)
- Jasper Cheung (CEO, Amazon-Japan G.K.)

Challenge: From “local” to “global”: “Children’s online study on WHO GICC”

“Hayabusa-2”: From space to children with cancer (Mission manager M. Yoshikawa)

[Intermission]

Panel Discussion: “Role of Japan in aiming the goal of WHO GICC”
Moderator: Hiroki Hori (President-elect, SIOP Asia; Mie University)
Panelists
- Kazuyo Watanabe (NGO Asian Children's Care League; ACCL)
- Jun Miyagi (Childhood cancer survivor)
- Chitose Ogawa (National Cancer Center Japan)
- Hiroyuki Shichino (National Center for Global health and Medicine)
- Kimikazu Matsumoto (National Center for Child Health and Development)
- Mitsuhiro Yoneda (National Center for Child Health and Development)

Closing Remark: Hitoshi Nakagama (President, National Cancer Center Japan)

Organizer: NGO Magokoro Organization for Childhood Cancer (MOCC)