

Preliminary Program - XVIII International Conference on Pediatric and AYAs
Psycho-Oncology 2025

Virtual sessions from 5:00 PM to 8:30 PM (GMT-3)

Day 1: May 20

5:00 – 5:05 PM (GMT-3) Opening Remarks – Lic. Teresa Méndez and Lic. Leticia García.

5:05 - 5:15 (GMT-3) Pediatric Cancer in Argentina - ROHA 25 years. Dr. Florencia Moreno (Argentina)

5:15 – 6:15 PM (GMT-3) Innovative Medicines and Treatments: New Challenges.

- Introduction – Edith Grynszpancholc
- Considerations on new therapies – Dr. Marisa Felice (Argentina)
- Reflections on access – Lic. Andrea Ayoroa (Argentina)
- Emotional impact on families – Lic. Teresa Méndez (Argentina)

6:15 – 7:00 PM (GMT-3) Palliative Care

- The role of siblings in palliative care – Dr. Ulrika Kreicbergs (Sweden)
- Local experience in palliative care for adolescents and young adults – Dr. Naomi Katz (Australia).

7:05 – 8:15 PM (GMT-3) Adolescents and Young Adults (AYAs)

- Bioethical aspects in decision-making within this population – Dr. Susana Ciruzzi (Argentina)
- Support for trans patients and gender diversity – Dr. Rosalie Power (Australia)
- Patient testimony – José (Argentina)
- Narrative writing interventions with AYAs – Dr. Ryan James (USA) and Dr. Trisha Paul (USA)

8:30 PM (GMT-3) Closing

Day 2: May 21

5:00 – 5:05 PM (GMT-3) Opening Remarks.

5:05 – 6:45 PM Survivorship

- Survivorship Program at Sick Kids Hospital, Canada – Dr. Paul Nathan (Canada)
- Promoting healthy habits in survivors – Dr. Carolina Chamorro (Canada)
- Foundations of the Right to Be Forgotten Law – Josep Carreras Foundation – Lic. Marta Fernández (Spain)
- Neurocognitive rehabilitation program – Dr. Stephen Sands (New York)

6:45 – 8:00 PM (GMT-3) Papers Presentations

8:00 PM (GMT-3) Closing